TekLinks Receives Award for Top Technology Practices--Managed Services Provider

TekLinks, a regional I.T. services provider headquartered in Birmingham, Alabama, announced today that it received Everything Channel's Top Technology Practices—Managed Services Provider Award. Winners were chosen from companies on the VAR Business 500 list.

David Powell, Vice President of Managed Services, attended the VAR Business 500 Awards Ceremony in New York on June 8, 2010, on behalf of TekLinks. "TekLinks' managed services business grew 67 percent last year," Powell said. "What's happened is that for many of these companies, the workforce was laid off, but the workload was not," he explained. "It is an honor to be recognized by the Everything Channel for our efforts to lead the way in providing cost-effective, practical solutions for businesses."
